ORDER: -

In the letter 1st read above, the Managing Director, Health & Medical Housing & Infrastructure Development Corporation, Hyderabad has stated that the Implementation Secretariat (IS) in the Public Enterprises Department has commissioned APITCO to undertake Manpower Assessment of Health & Medical Housing & Infrastructure Development Corporation in 2005. APITCO carried out all necessary investigations and submitted a report to Public Enterprises Department. The APITCO has noted the redundancy in the staff. They have proposed reduction in the staff and have suggested the re-organization of circles & Divisions. Based on the report of APITCO, out of 23 divisions, 8 divisions were closed and out of 17 circles, 4 circles were closed and they were merged with nearby divisions / circles. The corporation staff was adjusted in the existing vacancies and deputation staff were repatriated to their Parent Departments. Against a total strength of 315 proposed by APITCO, the No. of staff working as on 1-9-2007 were 327. The Managing Director has therefore requested to sanction the minimum cadre strength of 315 as recommended by APITCO at an early date.

2. In the D.O. Letter 2nd read above in the Minutes of the Group of Ministers meeting held on 30-1-2008 Group of Ministers on State level public Enterprises including Co-operative Institutions held on 30-1-2008, wherein the proposal of Managing Director, Health & Medical Housing & Infrastructure Development Corporation, Hyderabad for staff strength of 315 has been approved as it does not involve creation of any new posts. It has been further decided that the Corporation should enter into a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Administrative Department (Health, Medical and Family Welfare Department) for achievement of the projected work targets and improvement of its operational and financial performance.

3. In the Letter 3rd read above the Managing Director, Health & Medical Housing & Infrastructure Development Corporation, Hyderabad has furnished the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) for the year 2009-10.
